

TO SELL OUT WATSON.

A TRADING SCHEME OF BRYAN AND SEWELL.

FUSION ON THE BASIS OF FILLING CONGRESS WITH POPULISTS, WHILE BRYAN AND SEWELL GET THE ELECTORS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 9.—A scheme to appease the Populists has been uncovered here and laid at the doors of Bryan, Weaver and Charles Walsh, of Ottumwa, temporary secretary of the Democratic National Committee. The plan is to be applied to Iowa, at the Democratic State Convention, at Ottumwa, on August 12, and to other States gradually. An Ottumwa dispatch to a Des Moines paper, says:

"Mr. Bryan has caused it to be given out on several occasions that he would not accept the endorsement given him by the Populists unless his running mate, Mr. Sewall, was also endorsed. It is true that Mr. Bryan will not refuse the endorsement and as the matter will then stand it will be left with the individual Populists to do as they please in casting their votes. In each State the National Committee have their instructions to do this. They will offer inducements to the Populists to secure and they will secure it in this State this week—a complete fusion on the electoral ticket. If this fusion is accomplished there will be no difficulty as regards the electors, for they will be for Bryan and Sewall. The Populists demand electors for Bryan and Watson. The Democrats will withhold their fusion on State and Congressional tickets. By liberal use of help on State and Congressional offices, they hope to appease the Populists by the turning-down of Watson.

THE SCHEME OF FUSION.

"The National Democratic Committee hope to make the fusion in every State on the electoral ticket. Should the contingency arise that the Populists will not endorse, then, of course, there will be two sets of electors, with Bryan's name at the head. Should there be many Bryan and Watson electors chosen, it would create a great deal of power in the hands of the Populist electors and greatly complicate matters. Electors for Bryan and Watson may demand that unless the second place be given to Watson they will not vote for Bryan. Right here is where the National Committee is playing politics in its fusion scheme. Mr. Walsh says there are only two States in the Union where there is going to be any difficulty about this fusion on the electors. The two States are Georgia and Alabama. Then he smiled and said: 'See what Alabama did the other day. In gave 45,000 majority over the Populists. In the State of Alabama we will have a large enough vote over the Populists to elect Bryan and Sewall electors over those for Bryan and Watson. We are situated the same in Georgia.' This is the reason that Mr. Walsh and other members of the National Committee have allowed the facts that Watson was creating a great deal of disturbance and that Bryan had said he would not accept the Populist endorsement to give them little worry.

CARRYING UP A STATE.

"The success they are meeting with in the scheme of trading help on State and Congressional offices for Bryan and Sewall will be shown in this State next week at the Democratic State Convention. The allotment of the State to the various parties making up this fusion has been about completed. There will be a great campaign run in Iowa, as it is the hope of the campaigneers to carry the State by 40,000 plurality. M. F. Healy, of Dubuque, made himself famous by speaking of the gold Democrats as 'plagues and locusts,' will probably lead the ticket as Secretary of State. He is strictly a Democrat and a man of eloquence, and is believed to be the proper man to be placed in the same relative position to the State as Bryan holds to the country. The Attorney-General will also be taken in by the Democrats. There are two candidates: J. M. Parsons, of Lyon County, and W. D. Boies, nephew of ex-Governor Boies, of Sheldon. The Railroad Commissioners have been conceded to the Populists, although a man acceptable to both Populists and Democrats will probably be chosen. The only man spoken of yet is Amos S. Strecker, of Bloomfield. The Auditor of State is also conceded to the Populists, although the Democrats will have the Treasurer of the State. C. C. Cole, of Des Moines, a Populist, will probably be nominated for Supreme Court Judge.

TO APPEASE THE POPULISTS.

"With these concessions made to the Populists in this State, the electors will be Bryan and Sewall electors, and a probable uprising of the Populists for Watson appeared. The same thing will be done in other States. With this massive political scheme the National Committee expects to elect Bryan and Sewall. If it should be successful it would fill the lower house of Congress with Populists, as in almost every instance where the Populists have been asked for Congressmen the request has been granted. It is the hope of the National Committee to trade Congressmen for a President. The existence of this scheme was verified to-night by the results of the county convention in the Vith Congress District. The nomination would have been tendered to General Weaver on a silver plate, but the General has higher aims, as it is understood he had more to do in causing Bryan's nomination by the Populists at St. Louis than any other man. He believes that Bryan is more likely to be elected President than Weaver would be to be chosen Congressman in the Vith District. When it was known that General Weaver would not accept the nomination, the sentiment turned almost unanimously in favor of Frederick White, who has run before on the fusion ticket."

ANOTHER RACE WAR IN ARKANSAS.

WHITE LABORERS ON A RAILROAD NEAR HORATIO KILL NEGROES IN ATTEMPTING TO DRIVE THEM AWAY.

Tearkana, Ark., Aug. 9.—The race war in Polk County has broken out in earnest, and as a result of the first battle three negroes are dead, eight wounded and many have been run out of the county by the whites. Several negroes have passed through this place. Several negroes have passed through this place. Several negroes have passed through this place.

TROUBLE FEARED IN INDIANAPOLIS.

THE CUTTHROAT NOT ACCEPTED BY THE STEEL AND TIN PLATE WORKERS.

Indianapolis, Aug. 9 (Special).—Trouble is feared as a result of the refusal of the Association of Steel and Tin Plate Workers in the American Tin Plate Works at Elwood, Ind., to accept the terms of a new contract which the company insists upon and which has led the company to announce that it will non-unionize its works.

BLOODHOUNDS AFTER SAFE-BREAKERS.

Savannah, Ga., Aug. 9.—A special dispatch to the "Morning News" from Wareboro, Ga., says that the safes of the Southern Express and two stores were blown open and robbed. Much valuable merchandise was taken out of the stores. The robbers fastened the doors and windows with iron bars and the safe was opened. They are being pursued now by bloodhounds.

WILL OVERLOOK NO ISSUE.

MCKINLEY PREPARING HIS LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

PROTECTION AND SOUND MONEY WILL BE DISCUSSED AS OF ALMOST EQUAL IMPORTANCE BY THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE.

Canton, Ohio, Aug. 9.—This week will be one of the quiet ones of the campaign in Canton. One or two delegations are expected, and Major McKinley may make two or three short speeches, but he hopes to give a great deal of his time in the next ten days to his letter of acceptance. It is likely that it will be finished by the end of the third week in August, but he does not expect to publish it before September 1. Mr. Hobart will begin work on his letter very soon, and if the usual custom be followed, he will send a copy of it to Major McKinley a week or so before it is given to the public.

Major McKinley's letter will be his longest and most formal utterance during the campaign, and he will enter upon a careful discussion of the two great issues, protection and sound money. These issues are almost equal in importance in the opinion of Major McKinley, as indicated in the speeches. Scores of his friends, however, who come here from various parts of the country, seek to impress upon him that popular interest in the money question is declining, and that by the middle of September, the tariff will be the issue of paramount importance. However this may be, Major McKinley is amply prepared to discuss both issues, and in his letter of acceptance he will not overlook either of them.

The campaign will be opened on Saturday night in Columbus. The occasion will be of more than ordinary importance. The meeting will be addressed by Senator John Sherman and Senator-elect J. B. Foraker. Senator Sherman's speech on Saturday will be looked upon generally as his first step in his campaign for re-election to the United States Senate. Senator Sherman says he is preparing his speech with great care, and it is his wish to have it the most effective exposition of the financial question he has ever made. The prominence of finance in the politics of the day leads Senator Sherman's friends to believe that he will discuss it very fully. The "logic of the situation" points to the election of Senator Sherman as his own successor. In the State which has so many ambitious and able men, it is hardly surprising that several candidates for the Senate, and Mr. Sherman will no doubt find some opposition when the next Legislature meets to choose his successor. The name of Mr. Hanna is frequently mentioned in connection with the election, but wholly without the warrant of Mr. Hanna himself.

The Columbus meeting will call forth Mr. Foraker's first political utterance since the week of the Republican Convention at St. Louis, and there is always a vast deal of interest to both see and hear him. He has prepared his speech thoroughly, and it, with Senator Sherman's speech and Major McKinley's letter of acceptance, will follow the Columbus meeting. When asked to-day whether he had any objection to the campaign being held in Columbus, he said he had no objection, and that he was glad to see the campaign being held in Columbus. He said he had no objection to the campaign being held in Columbus, and that he was glad to see the campaign being held in Columbus.

THE SCHEME OF FUSION.

BRYAN RESUMES HIS JOURNEY.

HE LEAVES CHICAGO IN THE NIGHTTIME.

WITH HIS WIFE, THE CANDIDATE ATTENDED CHURCH—TO BE IN PITTSBURG TO-DAY—HIS PLANS UNCERTAIN.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—William J. Bryan left Chicago for Pittsburgh by the Pennsylvania road at 11:30 o'clock to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan departed from the Clifton a few minutes after 11 o'clock, after shaking hands with a large number of people gathered there to say good-by, and were driven to the Union Station, accompanied by the members of the Chicago Reception Committee. They had secured berths in the regular sleeper, and retired as soon as the train drew out of the station.

To-day was really a day of rest for Mr. Bryan, one of the few he has succeeded in passing since his nomination here nearly a month ago. Mr. Bryan is a good sleeper, and, despite the intense heat of last night, he rested well, and did not leave his bed until nearly 10 o'clock. After breakfast he and Mrs. Bryan took a carriage to the Clifton House, where they were staying, and drove to the Englewood Presbyterian Church, a beautiful structure at Sixty-fourth-st. and Yale-ave., where they attended service. They selected that house of worship because the temporary minister, the Rev. John Clark Hill, of Austin, Ill., is to be the pastor of their church at Lincoln, and they wanted to meet him. Mr. Hill recently received a call to the First Presbyterian Church at Lincoln, and will go there in a few weeks. After the service they returned to the Clifton and had dinner. Then both took a nap until 5:30. At 6 o'clock Mrs. Bryan went to the main parlor of the hotel and received a large number of people who were waiting to see her husband. Mr. Bryan received in his room. Many of his local supporters called. One of his visitors was General Warner, of Ohio, president of the National Bimetallist League, the father of the new silver party.

Mr. Bryan's plans at New-York and for his New-England trip are in a state of uncertainty. It is probable that while in New-York he and Mrs. Bryan will be the guests of William B. St. John, treasurer of the Democratic National Convention. If they do not stay at Mr. St. John's house, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will go to the Hotel Bartholdi. Mr. Bryan does not know whether or not he will address the National Convention at St. Louis, but he is inclined to believe that he will. He had decided to leave Pittsburgh Tuesday morning at 7:30, but he was informed to-day that the National Committee wanted him to reach New-York on the afternoon train, and not in the morning. To comply with this desire he will be obliged to leave Pittsburgh at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Ex-Congressman Richard P. Bland, who will accompany Mr. Bryan to New-York, left Chicago to-day, and will join the nominee at Alliance-to-morrow.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT'S MEETING.

The preparations for the great Populist rally in Madison Square Garden next Wednesday night continue apace. The opening of Barnum's circus or the exhibition of Hagenbeck's trained animals does not usually create much curiosity that is manifested by those who wish to get a glimpse of the stupor of the people. The 5,000 seats given to Tammany, and the two sections of seats reserved for the National Committee take up a good part of the hall and only a comparatively few seats are left. The press tickets were given out yesterday. The Tammany tickets will be distributed by a committee. As far as possible, giving out of any large number of seats, the giving out of the seats, as it is explained at headquarters, that they may fall into the hands of speculators. This fear is well founded, and shows that the majority of those who will attend the meeting will go with much the same feeling as they would attend a circus, and when the good seats are all gone are willing to pay a premium to get a close view of the performance.

It has been decided that inasmuch as there is a fear that the crowd may stampede and take the hall by storm, only two entrances will be used. These, it is thought, will be ample, however. One is the Madison-ave. entrance and the other is the entrance from Twenty-seventh-st. All holders of tickets, save press tickets and those in Sections O and P, which seats were given to the National Committee, will use the Madison-ave. entrance. The holders of box seats and the other seats will go up the stairs on the Twenty-seventh-st. side and be passed in through an aisle. The police arrangements will be elaborate.

While Mr. Bryan is journeying eastward with a whoop and hurrah, his friends here are making preparations for his reception. The arrangements are in the hands of the Madison Square Garden, and will not be completed until to-day. Mr. Bryan will arrive in the city to-morrow evening, and will probably be met at the hotel by a large number of his friends. The Madison Square Garden will be the scene of a great gathering, and the city will be filled with the excitement of the occasion.

BOSTON PREPARES FOR BRYAN.

Boston, Aug. 9.—The Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Bimetallist Union, which, through its president, Colonel Steven W. Nickerson, has invited William J. Bryan to be its guest while in Boston, has engaged a suite of rooms at the Hotel Lincoln House for the purpose of meeting Mr. Bryan, and will be present at the notification ceremonies in Madison Square Garden next Wednesday evening.

PRODUCED HER MARRIAGE CONTRACT.

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—Mrs. Nettie Craven Fair yesterday produced in court the original copy of her marriage contract with the late Senator James G. Fair. The document was attested by a local notary public, who placed his seal upon the contract at the solicitation of the dead millionaire. The contract is dated May 1, 1892, and is considered to be a landmark in the history of matrimony. Mrs. Fair also submitted a number of letters addressed to her by the late Senator, several of which tend to corroborate her story and prove that it was Fair's intention to provide for her in a liberal manner. The woman's case has been considerably strengthened by the presentation of these documents, and all the contest for the fair millions promises to be more bitter and complicated than ever.

TWO SAD DROWNING ACCIDENTS.

Miss Marion Burnham and a nurse lose their lives in Lake Champlain.

BURTON WAYLAND DROWNED IN THE ST. LAWRENCE.

Whitehall, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Miss Marion Burnham, fourteen years old, daughter of William A. Burnham, of Boston, was accidentally drowned in Lake Champlain, near Westport, this afternoon. She was in bathing and went out beyond her depth. Miss Mackle Moulder, a nurse, who accompanied the young lady, and who went to her assistance, was also drowned.

Y. Aug. 9.—A drowning accident happened to-day at Alexandria Bay, in the St. Lawrence River, by which Burton Wayland, of Watertown, N. Y., lost his life. Wayland and a companion were sailing in a skiff when the boat capsized and the former, who could swim, was drowned. The other young man, who could not swim, clung to the boat and was saved. The body has not yet been found.

DEATH IN LAKE NEAHTAWANTA.

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Thomas Kay, of Oswego Falls, was drowned this afternoon while swimming in Lake Neahtawanta.

FOUR DROWNED IN LAKE MICHIGAN.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Aug. 9.—Frank Yerrington, James Buttrick, W. M. Mencke and Martin Manning were drowned this afternoon while bathing in Lake Michigan. The bodies of Buttrick and Manning were recovered. Yerrington's wife was with him when he was drowned.

MANY FATAL HEAT CASES.

SIXTY-TWO DEATHS REPORTED IN NEW-YORK AND ITS VICINITY.

Forty-four in this city—numerous prostrations—some relief late in the evening.

ING—THE FORECAST FOR TO-DAY.

Sixty-two deaths from the excessive heat were reported yesterday in this city, and the region round about it—forty-four being in this city. Nine deaths occurred in Brooklyn, eight in nearby Jersey towns and one in Larchmont. There were a great many prostrations in New-York, Brooklyn and surrounding towns and villages. About 11 o'clock last night a mild thunderstorm cooled the air to some extent, and the temperature fell four degrees in one hour. At 11 the official thermometer in the Weather Bureau stood at 84, and at midnight it had dropped to 80.

The forecast for to-day is: Local thunderstorms; not so warm Monday evening.

The suffering in the city during the day and early evening was intense. On Saturday, when the thermometer struck a record mark, the prophets of the weather gave it as their opinion that there would be little or no diminution of the heat yesterday. Nor was there any, only the suffering of man and beast was not so universal as on the previous day. Profiting by the general cessation from labor and business cares which Sunday brings, and by the warnings issued from the experts of the Weather Bureau, thousands of people shook the hot dust of the city from their feet, and at Rockaway, Coney Island and numerous other resorts sought a few hours of comparative coolness.

STREETS ALMOST DESERTED.

All day yesterday the streets of New-York were almost deserted. Streetcars one after another could be seen passing at any given point absolutely empty, while even the open cars, which as a usual thing on Sunday are rarely without their full quota of passengers, had but few occupants. The Boulevard and the wide avenues in the upper part of the city presented an unwonted appearance. The thousands of Sunday bicyclists, equestrians and drivers of smart turnouts who usually frequent these popular roadways on Sunday were absent yesterday. Only at rare intervals would a stray wheelman or two, bathed in perspiration, roll defectively by, while the owners of horseflesh, who contrive, in their numbers, to make crossing the avenues uptown on a Sunday afternoon a matter of some risk to life and limb, had too much respect for their animals to expose them to the combined effects of the sun and the humidity.

But, while there was this general exodus from the city of those whose means would permit, there was no such escape for the huddled masses of humanity who live in the tenement-houses of the East Side. After sweltering the whole of the night through, they sweated again through the day until the going down of the sun bade them prepare for another night of misery and discomfort. On the stoops, sidewalks and curbstones of the shady sides of the streets of these poorer districts people sat and lay around, thankful even for this small measure of relief. It was something, at least, to get a few hours' respite from the suffocating atmosphere of their stifling rooms. Children and adults alike lounged around, lightly clad.

Although the mercury at its highest point yesterday did not reach by two degrees the top mark of Saturday, this decrease in temperature was not discounted by an increased humidity. About 4 p. m. the official thermometer of the Weather Bureau touched 90 degrees as the highest point for the day. The temperature of what was to follow, at 8 o'clock in the morning, was 77 degrees, and by noon it had reached 81 degrees. Then slowly the mercury began to climb until it reached its apex for the day at 94.

NEAR THE RECORDS.

In only two years since the records of the Weather Bureau were started here there have been hotter days on August 9. In 1882 92 degrees were registered, and on the corresponding day in 1894 92 degrees were reached.

The official figures are necessarily lower than those shown by the thermometers on the pavements. The record at Perry's Pharmacy was as follows: At East Sixteenth-st., 91; 39 p. m., 85; 6 p. m., 94; 9 p. m., 90; 12 midnight, 86.

SWINDLED ON A HUGESCALE.

A BAND OF CRIMINALS RUN TO EARTH.

ARRESTS OF MEN WHO HAVE ROBBED THE PUBLIC, IT IS BELIEVED, OF $700,000—USED THE MAILS TO DEFRAUD.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—By the arrest last night of the principals, one of the most combinations of swindlers that have ever preyed on the American public, whose operations have extended over many years and involved many States, has, it is confidently believed, been broken up. Acting on information from Postal Inspector J. J. Larmour, who has been working on the case at New-York for some time, that he had located two members of the combination and would arrest them at once, James F. McClure, William Thomas and J. L. Tallman were last night taken in custody on the charge of using the United States mails for fraudulent purposes. Their New-York confederates are William H. McClure and Dr. John Craig.

For years these men have conducted fraudulent schemes of various kinds under different firm names, seldom remaining long in any one locality, and have fled, it is believed, fully $750,000 from their dupes.

The earlier operations of the gang were in connection with a "fake" lottery scheme at Kansas City, and later on in pretended connection with the Louisiana Lottery. Lately they have been engaged in so-called "bucket-shop" business in this city, using various aliases, among them being "Patterson & Co.," "Craig & Co.," "Thomas & Co.," and have also been engaged in the sale of bogus mining stocks to a large extent.

The running to earth of these alleged swindlers was the work of John Hill, Jr., chairman of the Civic Federation Gambling Committee, and vice-president of the Chicago Board of Trade, and Major James E. Stuart, of the Postal Inspection Service.

The three men arrested here were taken before United States Commissioner Humphrey and bound over for trial.

John Craig and William H. McClure were lodged in the Hudson County (N. J.) Jail last night. They were arrested at Tom's River. They will be arraigned before United States Commissioner Linsley Rowe in Jersey City to-day.

REMARKABLE STORY FROM PARIS.

QUEEN VICTORIA IS REPORTED TO HAVE ARRANGED A MEETING BETWEEN PRESIDENT FAURE AND THE KAISER IN THE ISLE OF WIGHT.

Paris, Aug. 9.—A news agency here is responsible for the statement that Queen Victoria, at the request of Emperor William, has invited President Faure to meet him (Emperor William) at Osborne House, the Queen's residence on the Isle of Wight, with the idea of facilitating His Majesty's visit to the Paris exhibition in 1900. The agency adds that the Prince of Wales, on the occasion of his last visit to Paris, presented the invitation to President Faure.

London, Aug. 9.—The usually well-informed correspondent of "The Daily News" sends a dispatch which her paper will publish to-morrow, entirely discounting the report that Emperor William is, through his grandmother, Queen Victoria, manoeuvring to meet President Faure at Osborne House.

KILLED IN A TROLLEY ACCIDENT.
